Hand-drawn sketch of a web browser window titled "Add Reading Materials".

The browser's address bar shows "https://".

The main content area contains a large square placeholder with an "X" inside, indicating a missing image or document.

To the right of the placeholder are several input fields and dropdown menus:

- Pdf file
- Title
- Subtitle
- Authors
- Genre
- Type (dropdown menu)
- Language
- Audience (dropdown menu)
- Keywords
- Summary

At the bottom of the content area are three buttons:

- Add Reading Materials
- Submit
- Cancel
